

Table of contents

Henryk Nowicki, Paweł Nowicki, Krzysztof Kucharski Contribution of the university research community in Toruń to the development of public procurement law in Poland	7
Julianna Ambroziak Analysis of risk due to selecting private partner for a public-private partnership	17
Dominika Borden Public procurement for sustainable development	41
Mateusz Brzeziński Sustainable public procurement in the perspective of the new public procurement law	57
Bartosz Brzyski The problem of nullity of contractual penalties in the Public procurement law	73
Anna Górczyńska, Marcin Matczak Public procurement of social services – particular matters	87
Aleksandra Hajduk Needs analysis as a mean to achieve Public Procurement Act's strategic goals	103
Łukasz Jankowski Institution of a bid bond in the new Public Procurement Law	117
Aleksandra Klefas Green public procurement – comparison of Public Procurement Acts of 2004 and 2019	129
Ewaryst Kowalczyk Public finance discipline responsibility regarding the organization of design contests	153
Marcin Lidzbarski What about this term? That is, about the need to „trivialize” deadline	169

Maciej Lubiszewski
Reversed Procedure in the Light of New Public Procurement Law	185
Franciszek Łapecki
The Protection of Business Information (Trade Secrets) in The New Polish Public Procurement Law	199
Aleksandra Magiera, Seweryn Sasin
Public procurement and the health care sector in the European Union	217
Adam Mika
The New Public Procurement Law and the choice of a private partner in the public-private partnership	227
Agnieszka Piwowarczyk
Conditions for participation in public procurement procedures in the context of corruption	245
Michał Raduła
Contest procedure on architectural design and architectural – construction design in new public procurement law	261
Konrad Różowicz
Evolution of tasks and competences of the Prezes UZP under the new Public Procurement Law	275
Maciej Sarnowski
The issue of the state purchasing policy in the light of the new Public Procurement Law	289
Grzegorz Stankiewicz
Contractual penalties in the light of the regulation of the new Public procurement law	307
Łukasz Stępkowski
The system of review procedures under the Act of 11 September 2019 – the Law on Public Procurement in light of the requirements of the right to effective remedy and Directives No. 89/665/EEC, 92/13/EEC	325
Łukasz Tomaszuk, Paweł Izdebski
Assessment of statutory interference with the content of the contractual relationship between the contracting authority and the contractor in the context of new instruments for legal protection of contractors introduced under public procurement regulations	345
Bibliography	363